

6

Inverness High Street

A green public space with a winding road that priorities people over cars.

Open areas which can be used for public seating, art, and local music, etc.

A shallow water feature which adds a natural element to the street - reminiscent of a park.

Green wall features, which fill the view with nature over concrete while keeping the historical impact of the surrounding buildings.

